Afro-Editor quits ATA Board Over Fund Issue

Visitors From The South

Mrs. Marian Newsome Derbizay and daughter Mary Carolyn who have been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin of 96 Atlantic Street, Jersey City, for the past few days. She is a member of one of Virginia's most distinguished families, her father, former Attorney J. Thomas Newsome, is widely known as one of the leading baristers of that state. She is the wife of Dr. Irving A. Derbizay, Administrative Dean of Tuskegee Institute.

Nation Mourns Death of NAACP Head

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—J. E. Spingarn, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, died at his home here, 110 E. 78th Street, July 26 after a long illness.

Mr. Spingarn had been president of the N.A.A.C.P. since 1930. Prior to that time he was chairman of the board, 1913-1919, and treasurer of the N.A.A.C.P., 1919-1930. In 1913 he established the Spingarn medal which has been awarded annually since that time to the man or woman of African descent and American citizenship who has made the highest achievement during the preceding year or years in any honorable field.

The twenty-fourth recipient of the Spingarn medal was Marian Anderson, famous contralto, who received the medal from the hands of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, at the 30th annual conference of the N.A.A.C.P. in Richmond, Va., on July 2, 1932.

Throughout his long career with the N.A.A.C.P., over a quarter of a century, Mr. Spingarn was an uncompromising fighter for absolute equal justice for the Negro race.

He became interested in the N.A.A.C.P. years ago through the extradition case of Steve Green, a colored sharecropper who escaped from Arkansas after an argument with the landlord over pay and his crop. Arkansas authorities attempted to extradite Green from Chicago and warned him that a mob would be waiting for him at the Arkansas line.

In 1916 Colonel Spingarn invited the leading Negro leaders of the day to his country estate, "The Cedars," at Ansonia, N. Y., to chart a course of militant and liberal action for the Negro. The second annual conference was held sixteen years later in August, 1932, when Mr. Spingarn had as his guests the leading representatives of the Negro people from all sections of the country together with officials of the N.A.A.C.P. on a week-end conference whose purpose was to advise on a program for the Negro in the light of the needs of the Negro youth of that day.

Colonel Spingarn, who served during the World War, is credited with having been the chief mover in securing the United States government to train Negro officers for service in France. Over 1,000 were trained.

He was a contributor to encyclopedias and dictionaries and was an authority in horticulture, especially on the flower clematis. He was recognized as one of the leading "clematis" in the world and possessed on his estate at Ansonia the largest collection of clematis in the world—200 species. The Garden Clubs of America gave him a gold medal, the National Horticultural society awarded him the Jackson Dawson Medal. He was a member of the board of managers of the New York Botanical Garden.

Funeral services were private and were held in Dutchess county on July 27. Mr. Spingarn is survived by his widow, two sons,

5 WHITES AND FATHER FACE TRIAL FRIDAY

PATERSON, Aug. 2.—Five men charged with criminal assault on two young girls, will face trial next Friday before Judge Joseph A. Delaney in Special Sessions court, as will the father of one of the girls, it was announced Saturday at the prosecutor's office. Meanwhile the sextet was lodged in county jail.

Edward Robinson, 52, of 142 Spruce street, will be tried for incest. His daughter, Vera, 15, a school girl, is in delicate condition as a result of attacks by her father and the others, it is alleged.

Police say Robinson beat his daughter into submission to other men, from whom he received pay. They assert he had miscondemned himself with her since she was 8 years old.

The other girl involved is Mary Pearson, 18, a houseworker, of 19 Governor street, police state. Both girls were paroled by police after giving statements. The Robinson girl was looked as a juvenile offender, and the Pearson girl as a disorderly person. They were placed in the custody of Policewoman Sarah Leigh.

The men, who Thursday were committed to jail without bail by Recorder Vincent C. Duffy, are: John Villipotto, 29, of 170 East Sixth street, David Rosell, 24, of 62 Prince street, Philip Pagnello, 51, of 62 Jersey street, Albert Martello, 18, of 608 Main street and Philip Passaro, 28, of 16 Third avenue, all white. All entered pleas of not guilty.

The arrests were made by Detective James Brennan and Frank Robinson and County Detective James E. Truman.

Crusader for Race Business

Above is shown Attorney Oliver Randolph (right)—being congratulated by Henry Jackson, after charges of inciting a riot against Jackson were dismissed in Fourth Precinct Court last week.

Jewish Merchants' Charges Dismissed

Before a large crowd of interested spectators which taxed the capacity of the courtroom of the Fourth Precinct, Henry Jackson, crusading advocate of Negro businesses, representative of the House of Israel, was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Anthony Bianco on a charge of making a speech in which he advocated race hatred because, among other things, he urged "that the black race should not buy from Jews."

After hearing the evidence, Judge Bianco dismissed the complaint. The charge against Jackson was one of the first charges brought in this State under the new law.

The New Jersey law which prohibits propaganda inciting race color and religious hatred is one of recent origin and Jackson's case, his attorney, former Assistant United States Attorney, Oliver Randolph, stated, was important because it involved the right of freedom of speech.

Judge Bianco in deciding the case quoted from a recent opinion of Vice Chancellor Bigelow and from opinions of the Supreme Court of the United States. He held that there was not sufficient corroboration after holding that the testimony of several of the witnesses against Jackson was discredited.

Among the highlights of the case was the searching cross-examination of the complainant, Alex Abramson, Jewish merchant of 230 Prince st., Newark, who testified that meetings were held at the corner near his store and that he heard Jackson make derogatory remarks.

ELIZABETH BOY CONFESSES TO SAFE THEFT

ELIZABETH, Aug. 2.—The one-day search for a mysterious "holdup man" ended just where it started here Sunday when police announced they had obtained a confession of guilt from 19-year-old Elizabeth Kates, of 252 Union street, elevator operator in the Levy Brothers Department Store building on Broad street.

The robbery, which occurred Friday afternoon, had baffled police when clerks found Kates lying unconscious on the floor of his elevator in the basement of the building.

He was taken to Alexian Brothers Hospital for treatment. Regaining consciousness he told doctors and police that he had taken a man on the elevator to the sixth floor.

SCOTTSBORO Boy Is Preacher

Crowds Flock to Hear Him

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 2.—Beginning July 24, Rev. William Wright, one of the four Scottsboro boys released from an Alabama prison, now turned preacher, conducted a series of meetings here at the St. James A. M. E. Church, Arctic and New York avenues for one week.

Wright, obviously a young man of strong religious feeling, spoke forcefully to the nightly crowds in attendance at St. James.

Speaking with the eloquence of conviction and uncommon experience, the Scottsboro youth told the story of seven years of merciless confinement in the shadow of the electric chair. He pleaded movingly for the indulgence of his "brothers and yours" who still are confined and are as innocent as he and the other three now free.

Wright is devoting his life, he said, to the cause of freedom for his unjustly imprisoned brothers.

The men are said to have passed insulting remarks to Lee and followed him as he walked on to greet his friend, Shelton Lane, who was standing in a nearby doorway. The men, all white, set upon him and the riot began.

In the melee an aged woman, Mrs. Raynor of Dekalb avenue, was trampled and severely injured. The clash was laid at the feet of West Henson, white, brother of a local policeman, according to citizens.

No arrest was made. The local papers gave a vague and inaccurate account of the riot. Chief of Police John F. Murray questioned Lane at length Monday but no action was taken.

Carl Murphy Opposed Fund To Aid Fight

Debate Over Contribution to N.A.A.C.P. Brings Surprise Action

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 2.—Carl Murphy, veteran editor of Baltimore's Afro-American weekly and member of the trustees board of the American Teachers Association, asked to be relieved of his duties on the board during a debate last Friday afternoon over recommendations made to the association by the executive committee.

Murphy's request to be relieved of his duties was made, the editor declared, because he did not feel disposed to assume responsibility for the association's mounting financial obligations. The newspaperman expressed the opinion that the association should not attempt, in view of its finances, to continue making a lump sum contribution of two hundred dollars annually to the educational equalization fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

It was his belief, he continued, that the A. A. should encourage contributors to the fund by individual members—and not further involve its finances by assuming additional obligations.

Dr. John W. Davis, former association president and exponent of the educational equalization movement, took the floor and argued eloquently for continued financial support of the N.A.A.C.P. fund by the A. A. as a body.

"This organization," the noted educator said, "is both morally and financially obligated to support the work of the N.A.A.C.P. We cannot afford to quit the struggle for the equalization of educational opportunity for our people."

Turning to Mr. Murphy, President Davis concluded:

"Mr. Murphy, you and I who live in the border states of Maryland and West Virginia must not forget our obligation to push this struggle for equal educational opportunity for all our people."

"It would be, I firmly believe, a blot on the name and purpose of this association to withdraw from."

Legislature MAY STUDY CASE OF LAWNSIDE

LAWNSIDE, Aug. 2.—The grave economic situation facing Negroes in this community may be thrown before the New Jersey Legislature as the result of a town meeting held here last week. The meeting was called in response to a petition initiated by the Lawnside Workers Alliance and signed by more than 400 residents of the borough.

In speaking of the problem Mayor Still said, "The situation has become extremely grave since the passage of the Woodrum Bill setting 'WPA.' Our people must have work if they are to live and if the borough is to meet its obligations. We are going to follow this thing through until we get it."

Funeral services were private and were held in Dutchess county on July 27. Mr. Spingarn is survived by his widow, two sons, SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 2.—Jerome J. Donovan, proprietor of the Chateau Ballroom, informed township officials that he is considering sale of his establishment to the grand lodge of the B.P.O. of Newark, Alexander Brathwaite, Grand Dictator. He said Brathwaite has offered to purchase the building and wooded grounds which surround it.

NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 2.—Hello Everyone!

Mrs. Edith DeBruhl of Washington is spending quite some time in New York. She will spend six weeks here and then she will go to the VILLA MAE in Atlantic City. Her mother, Mrs. Penn, called on your truly just for an evening spent in seeing the bright lights. She left Friday for the Catskill Mountains to spend the remainder of the summer. Mr. Penn will join her there. She really is the sweetest little mother to me. I simply adore her. I am sorry Edith, who can only stay here now.

Believe me Mrs. Rodetta Rocumore doesn't mean maybe when she says please serve the champagne with dinner. And what a dinner. I think your house guest is charming. Mrs. Josephine Hall, formerly of New York, has just moved to Brooklyn. Her lovely private home more power to you. Miss Cynthia Stokes of New York and Mrs. Estelle Lindsey of White Plains, N. Y., was guest at the Villa Mae in Atlantic City. Mrs. Viola Freeman of Detroit is house guest of her brother, Mr. Williams.

See you next week, Mae.

this struggle," Dr. Davis added. The meeting, after requesting the trustees board to act on Mr. Murphy's resignation and granting it power to fill the vacancy, voted to continue its annual contribution to the N.A.A.C.P. equalization fund.

Members of the A. T. A. expressed surprise over the action of Editor Murphy. It is believed that Mr. Murphy has for some time been in disagreement with several features of the association's policy.

floor and that as the light neared the ground floor, he asked the passenger where he wanted to get off.

He said he didn't remember anything after that, implying that he had been struck on the head. Police found that a $1,225.75 payroll from the office of Andrew Christensen—on the fifth floor—was missing.

Kates stuck to his story of the "holdup" for five hours Saturday as police grilling him. Finally he broke down when police learned that he made it a habit of resting on the fifth floor between trips.

According to police, Kates waited until the employees of Christensen's office went out to lunch on Friday and then forced his way into the office. Then, according to police, he snatched the forty-one pay envelopes and threw them behind some cabinets on the fifth floor.

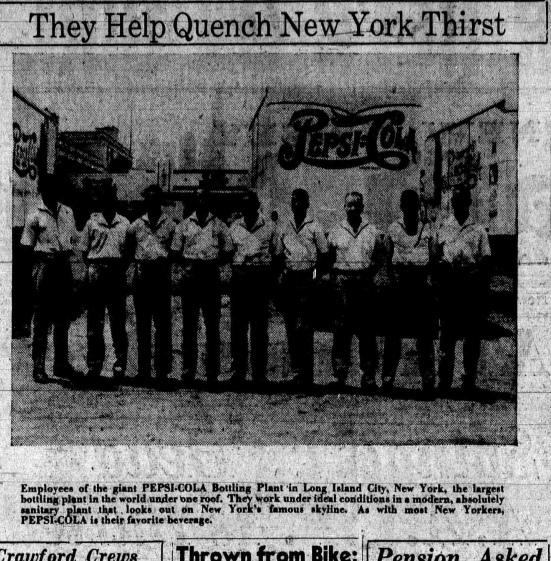

Then he re-entered the elevator and bumped his head against the sides to make himself appear knocked unconscious. The payroll was not covered by insurance.

Kates pleaded guilty before Police Judge John L. McGuire Monday and was held for Grand Jury action.

KILLED BY SHOT FROM COP'S GUN

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Louis Hall, 38, a Negro was instantly killed when he was struck by a bullet fired from the service pistol of Patrolman Louis Renna. Renna had been drinking and decided to do some target practice.

He improved a target and started shooting. Two of his bullets hit the bull's-eye but the third pierced a shack hitting the unfortunate victim.

Renna, who had an unblemished record of 18 years of service was arrested on a homicide charge and placed in a cell. Fifteen minutes later he was found hanging from an iron crossbar, suspended by a rope fashioned from strips of his shirt.

statements. In his speech, against the Jewish people.

Another witness who attempted to corroborate Abramson's testimony was Sam Dimenkey also of 266 Prince street, an employee of Abramson. Upon cross-examination by Mr. Randolph, it was brought out that the testimony of the two witnesses differed widely as to just what Jackson said.

Meyer Goldberg of 205 Spruce street, and Sidney Arnold of 51 Richmond street were other witnesses who testified that Jewish shop-keepers in the Third Ward, Newark's densest center of Negro population.

Arnold, who appeared to be arrogant and defiant at the beginning of his testimony, was veritably put in his place under the cross of Mr. Randolph's cross-examination and left the witness stand a very much subdued person.

After Judge Bianco dismissed the complaint, Jackson and his attorney, Mr. Randolph, received an internal ovation from Jackson's friends and admirers in the courtroom adjacent to the courtroom.

Prosper Brewer, Third Ward publican leader, led the fight to see that Jackson was properly defended. He was a member of a committee of women and men, among whom were William Jennings of 108 Badger avenue, J. Jordan of 10 Mouthmouth street, and W. Anderson of 187 West street.

Growing out of the case a better organized movement has been started for the purpose of encouraging and promoting more business operated by colored persons in the Third Ward.

Mr. Jackson, the defendant, who bravely took the initiative in the movement, advocating the right and duty of colored men to engage more actively in business, especially in the Third Ward, has been made the field agent of the new movement and will start a new speaking campaign, mainly on street corners of the Third Ward, early in August.

Meetings will be held to further the program and to see that the campaign for the encouragement and promotion of Negro business will receive a new impetus. Many prominent ministers and leaders in different walks of life have signified their willingness to take an active part in the movement.

Camden News

CAMDEN, Aug. 2.—The past week will go down in history as one of accomplishment for the HUNTON BRANCH Y.M.C.A. The HUNTON Y. also has a very good tennis team. In a tournament recently held with the New Deal Club of Philadelphia the branch players won eight out of nine games.

The At Home Summer Camp for boys opened at the Y.M.C.A. recently. Seventeen boys were on hand to begin a six weeks' camp program.

The Soft Ball Team under the leadership of Mansfield Finney, which plays in the greater Camden League and which is playing for the first time as a team, clinched fourth place in the first half of the league and thereby is to play in a round robin.

The Branch Track and Field team is another new feature that is doing very well. In a state-wide colored Y.M.C.A. it tied Newark as second place, scoring 28 points. In a championship meet held by the Middle Atlantic A.A.U., at Ocean City on Saturday, June 24, three of the members scored against men who have long experience on the track. The three successful were Cooper, the Haddonfield High School dash who placed third in the quarter-mile; Sadler placed fifth in the 160-yd. dash; John Jones demonstrated that he is to be reckoned with in the high jump. He jumped 6 ft. 1 1/2 in.

American Teacher's Ass'n In 36th Annual Meet

(Spec)
ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 2.—The American Teachers Association, formerly the National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools, held its thirty-sixth meeting here July 28-29, with more than five hundred of its enrolled membership in attendance. Dr. Carrington L. Davis, Association president and principal of the Dunbar School, Baltimore, presided.

The A.T.A. held its sessions in Atlantic City's Junior High School. Pacific and his avenues, the Indiana Avenue School and the New Jersey Avenue School.

This year's association discussion took as their theme "The role of the school in the development of character."

The business of the convention began with a meeting Tuesday at 10 a. m. when the A.T.A. Trustees Board met in the office of Dr. W. W. Sanders, Charleston, W. Virginia, executive secretary of the association, and closed Friday night with a general session addressed by Dr. Ambrose L. Subrie, Professor of Teacher Training at New York University, and Dr. Channing H. Tobias, Senior Secretary Colored Unit, International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., New York City.

Among those who addressed the sessions of the A.T.A. were such nationally known figures as R. W. Bullock, H. Council Trenholm, C. C. Spaulding, T. Arnold Hill, Mrs. Wills Carter, Dr. Leon A. Ransom and A. Phillip Randolph.

Dr. W. W. Sanders, retiring from the A.T.A. executive secretaryship after ten years of official service, was paid warm tributes by members of the Association at its business session Friday afternoon.

Dr. John W. Davis, president of the West Virginia State College Institute, W. Va., Dr. J. L. Clark, president-emeritus of Southern University, Baton Rouge, La., and A. T. A. President Carrington L. Davis, were among those paying tribute to the service of Dr. Sanders.

The A.T.A. re-elected Dr. Carrington L. Davis, president and names H. Council Trenholm, president of the Alabama State Teachers College, Montgomery, to succeed Dr. Sanders as executive secretary.

The program will take place at the Aqueduct Garden.

Women Clubs At World's Fair

Plan For Capacity Crowd At 'Wings' Newark Concert

(Special to Herald News)
Rev. Glenn T. Settles of Cleveland, Ohio, originator of the "Wings Over Jordan" radio program, broadcast over national hookup every Sunday morning, will visit Newark and adjacent communities within the next two weeks to plea plans for the appearance of the radio feature here on Thursday evening, September 28, at Newark Armory, Sussex Avenue and Jay street.

This information was disclosed Monday by Mrs. Lillian P. Williams of Jersey City, Executive representative of the famed 42-piece choral group.

"Wings Over Jordan" ticket headquarters are now located at Whittington's Real Estate office, 141 W. Market street, Bamberger's Department Store, Court street, Y. M. C. A.

In view of the record attendance at previous concerts given by "Wings Over Jordan," particularly in Baltimore and Washington, where each performance drew over 15,000 persons, tickets were placed on sale well in advance so that proper preparation could be made.

The Newark Armory has a seating capacity for 14,000. Rev. Settles, accompanied by Mrs. Williams, plans to personally visit the pastors of each church serving as co-sponsors of the concert and to advise them in the best method to achieve the success realized by the Baltimore and Washington churches.

The public is aware that it is all a fake. They know that the midway is a combination of a small town: carnival, honky-tonk burlesque, and cheap sidewalk parkers.

Inspection Tag Brings Freedom

The compulsory motor vehicle law proved a blessing to Thomas Jones, 29 years old, of 93 Prince street. Jones was arrested by Radio Patrolman James Dunn, who charged him with operating a truck with brakes improperly adjusted at Maple avenue and Bayway, June 27.

Arraigned before Judge John L. McGuire, this week, Jones produced a certificate from the Motor Vehicle Inspection Bureau attesting the brakes as having been in good condition on June 26, the day before he was given the summons. Judge McGuire dismissed the complaint.

Man, Woman Held Following Fight

PATERSON, Aug. 2.—Charles Leachman, 45, of 79 Garfield avenue and Bertha McKamey, 48, of 54 Benson street, were arrested on charges of atrocious assault and battery following a fight here Saturday afternoon between them near the relief headquarters.

Glen Rock Men Held In Default of Bail

RIDGEWOOD, Aug. 2.—Graves Brown, 29, of 53 Bergen street, Glen Rock, and Henry Anderson, 24, of 28 Bergen street, Glen Rock, were remanded to the county jail in Hackensack Saturday in default of $100 bail to await trial in Second District Criminal court. They were charged with staging a fight in front of 216 South Broad street.

Paterson - - - The Silk City
By John A. Huggs

In former years, when the name of Paterson was mentioned, one immediately thought of silk. In fact, the word silk was almost synonymous of Paterson. Now, let us look at Paterson from another angle. Its progress in the line of silk is nationally recognized, its reputation as far as the progress of its colored citizens has yet to be brought to our attention.

Since Alexander Hamilton's time, the man who founded Paterson, the city has progressed rapidly. It has beautiful buildings, roads, parks and stores.

With reference to our Colored People, we have ladies and gentlemen of distinction in this fair city, whose endeavors embrace every avenue of life. In the medical field we have Doctors N. T. Cotton, H. H. Holt, A. Maurice Curtis and the following Dentists: A. D. Maxwell and George E. Kyle, all of whom serve both races with wisdom.

Politically we admire Board of Recreation Commissioner W. Howard Jackson; Justices of the Peace Virgil Reede, Louis Johnson and John A. Huggs; President Scott of the Passaic County Colored Republican League, Inc., President Ward of the Passaic County Democratic League and others such as Mrs. Viola Adams and Mr. Thomas, members of the County Committee; Oles James and Herbert Morris, constantly in action. Civically we are proud of Mrs. M. Byrnes Mosely, of the music project, together with Mrs. Maxwell J. Williams of the Works Progress Administration; and Mrs. A. Maurice Curtis of the Community Chest as well as the relief administration.

In the field of education we have the following teachers: Misses E. Bernice Rouser, Sarah Monroe, Florence Smith, Eleanor Dunn Boyd and Mrs. Louise Smith Green. Affiliated with the Board of Health, is Miss Margaret Harris, a registered nurse. In the Post Office we have Charles Jones, substitute Letter Carrier and Elton W. Hamilton. In the Passaic County Court House we have George F. Bumpass, jailer.

Plan For Capacity Crowd At 'Wings' Newark Concert

(Special to Herald News)
Rev. Glenn T. Settles of Cleveland, Ohio, originator of the "Wings Over Jordan" radio program, broadcast over national hookup every Sunday morning, will visit Newark and adjacent communities within the next two weeks to plea plans for the appearance of the radio feature here on Thursday evening, September 28, at Newark Armory, Sussex Avenue and Jay street.

This information was disclosed Monday by Mrs. Lillian P. Williams of Jersey City, Executive representative of the famed 42-piece choral group.

"Wings Over Jordan" ticket headquarters are now located at Whittington's Real Estate office, 141 W. Market street, Bamberger's Department Store, Court street, Y. M. C. A.

In view of the record attendance at previous concerts given by "Wings Over Jordan," particularly in Baltimore and Washington, where each performance drew over 15,000 persons, tickets were placed on sale well in advance so that proper preparation could be made.

The Newark Armory has a seating capacity for 14,000. Rev. Settles, accompanied by Mrs. Williams, plans to personally visit the pastors of each church serving as co-sponsors of the concert and to advise them in the best method to achieve the success realized by the Baltimore and Washington churches.

about visiting the camp due to the treatment of the Negroes during Louis' period there, at the hands of the local constabulary.

What has happened to the piano team of Layton and Johnson who were top notch entertainers in Europe in the late twenties and at one time received as high as $3,500 per week.

Lionel Hampton and Fletcher Henderson, with Benny Goodman hand out on the west coast, are making that orchestra break all dance records.

Fast Flashes—Everybody is enjoying the Dollar Days at the Fair every Saturday and Sunday. "The best things in life are free" as the saying goes and such is the case at the World's Fair. The free exhibits are clocking record crowds while the paying shows on the midway are suffering from the absence of paying customers.

The public is aware that it is all a fake. They know that the midway is a combination of a small town: carnival, honky-tonk burlesque, and cheap sidewalk parkers.

Many friends of Mrs. Young, a resident of the Baptist Home, 3 Barber Avenue, formerly of Cambridge, are wishing her a speedy recovery.

Wednesday evening, a farewell party was given to Mrs. Dorcas White in celebration of the departure of the Mrs. Z. M. E. Church and the Wesley M. E. Church at the same time. Mrs. White will spend the month of August visiting relatives and friends in Frankford, Delaware.

A College Party was given Friday evening, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Warren D. Engstrom, with Mrs. Engstrom and Mrs. Margarette Quigley, co-hostesses. Those to attend were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Spaulding, Jr., of Durham, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sterling and mother, Mrs. Maurice de Emerson Street, Mrs. Mabel Wilson of Jericho, Mrs. Edith Kathleen, Erie, Pa. are trying to impersonate the Gold Dust Twins. Donald Simmons kisses Alvin Clark "as best" at the dance, and now he's at sea there "ain't no how."

ROCKING-RHYME:—Lenwood G. had a birthday that suited the ocean blue, and now he has a marcelled head, that attracts both men and women. He has a little swing cat, his name was Coleman, Mac; and everytime she visits Westfield her cat is to bring him home.

Mary T. loves Teddy Platt, a very hip boy, but; that affair isn't a "hot" but, and that's the real McCoy.

Pauline Venable, tobacco lady and Mohawk grinder to luxe, will not have spend her money for any more tobacco since she's in love with the tobacco broker of the town. Henry Elbach, Father Divine II (Cory) is seen going into every weekly wash now in your town. He says he's a "hot" and is trying to CON you? Billy Pernel says he wants to be engaged to Anna Mae as soon as he can. He has a little swing cat, his name was Coleman, Mac; and everytime she visits Westfield her cat is to bring him home.

Until next issue keep all news on "Q. T." and don't eat no fat until you hear from me.

All-Around

By LILLIAN B. HUFF

The Gang Was There:

Some two thousand collegiate students of "jitterbugology" cavorted on the decks of the S. S. Delaware Friday night at the bid of the far-famed Guardians of Brooklyn and New York. The youngsters were everything and anything including white suits—slacks—culottes—box pleated dresses that have pushed last year's favorite, the "dirndl," completely out of the picture. Roxie Myatt, Howard University student, wore a white and black bouquet suit escorted by Frank Thompson, junior at Howard "Med" school.

Jerry Fowler with hair flowing was seen on the arm of Herbert Thompson, ace sprint of Jersey City. Doris Christmas of Virginia State in brown and white linen. Marian Stout in black linen escorted by her fiancé, Indian Nichols home from Wilberforce attended with Dutch Edwards.

Shirley Fletcher of New York wore a two piece crepe. Josephine Washington of Englewood was having a "gay old time" in a black and pink affair. Alice Burroughs in a pretty white spectator frock. A two piece plaid added to Iris Bailey's charm. Helen Frazier a June graduate of Virginia State, wore green tweed. Virginia Asbury in a two piece salmon colored sport dress was seen doing a mild version of the Lindy with play boy Hy Reid of Jersey City. Carrie Nicholas senior at Spellman, spending the summer in Newark, wore a blue pink. Dot Edwards was escorted by an illustrious Guardian of Baltimore in the person of Charlie Brown. Marion Whitlock, school teacher of Baltimore was seen whispering sweet nothings into the ear of Leroy Carroll also of Baltimore. Josephine Trotter of Jersey City was seen with Lou Layne of Actors Guild note. Eddie Gaylor was just a "scribbling" in a little note book for his next week's column. Ocie Jordan was very attentive to his lady friend. A Miss Rebecca Bass, student of Columbia's Graduate School. Fredella Feniston. Lauretta Hammond. Bessie Abrams were showing two collegiates, visitors from Maryland how we do it here. Kay Marshall. June Parks. George Marshall were up from the shore. Vernon Andrade and his boys provided the tuneful melodies.

Have You Dropped In:

At the Fat Man on the hill, the new hi-spot for pleasure lovers. The decorations are borrowed from the barn yard. Famous entertainers such as Bill Robinson. Mills Brothers and Louis Armstrong in black face attached to the bodies of roosters. Indirect lighting shines from behind a white fence. It's very smart. Monday evening Mrs. H. G. Brown of New York and New Jersey had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Oliver of Washington, D. C. Mrs. John L. Mahoney of Washington. Mrs. L. Hunstary of Detroit. Mrs. B. Henriques and Mr. E. A. Taylor of New York City.

The Younger Set Have Found A New Answer

Amo-I love; Amas-you love; Amat-He loves. . . Do you remember almost the first Latin we learned to chant was conjugating the verb "love?" . . . But today the youngsters are saying it this way: "I love" . . . "You love" . . . "let's get married!" And the month of August bids fair to outshine June in romantic quidnoses with the younger set either saying "I do" at home quietly or before large church gatherings.

Pretty Pauline Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Sears, 561 River Road, Fair Haven, will start the ball rolling August 5 when she meets Jacques Fairfax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax of Belmar at the home of Rev. J. N. Washington and says her marriage vows before only the immediate family. Standing with her will be her sister, Marceline Sears. Albert Landis, brother-in-law of the groom will best man. They will spend their honeymoon in Richmond, Va.

The bride to be is a graduate of Rumson High School. Jacques finished Asbury Park High School and attended Lincoln University.

WESTFIELD, August 2—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coleman of 155 Brisbane Place entertained Saturday night, July 29 in honor of the natal day of their daughter Miss Ruth Lovell.

Well wishers were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Craft, Mr. and Mrs. George McKay, Mrs. Carrie Lukins, the Misses Ruth Womble, Louise Jackson, Marion Jones, Doris Jones, Peggy Nelson, Gertrude Styth, Loyline and Edna Collier, Madeline Carter, Florence Carter, Annie and Virginia Collier, Irma Mack, Thelma Brown, and Daisy Council.

NIGHTLIFE

WITH THE NIGHTLIFER

Marian Anderson will be seen in a flicker soon and she will receive $5,000 for singing one song. . . . Nice work if you can get it. . . . Received a letter from my good pal Satchel Robinson last week correcting some of the facts published here about his new job. . . . Satchel is working at the Colonial Hotel in Spring Lake and tells me he has been working on this same job each summer for the past four years. . . . He is not disgusted with show business, but likes it and feels that he got a very good break last winter. . . . Glad to know your layout is still temporarily, Satch. . . . That place I have in mind for you is the very one you spoke about in your letter, Satch, and I would like to see you open up there with a bang in the fall. . . . Talked with Larry Ringold at Dodge's Grill the other evening about the ability of local musicians and he had only words of praise for them. . . . "We have some splendid talent in Newark but the boys just won't get together. . . . To be a successful musician requires study, confidence and cooperation. . . . Our boys lack some of these essentials—especially cooperation. . . . One could get together a band with the talent we have, that would compare with any of the 'name bands' playing today, but they just won't cooperate," Larry said mournfully. . . . Newark gave the world the Savoy Sultans and Nightlifer would like to see another top aggregation go forth. . . . Petty jealousy has no place in the amusement field today, but the spurs, entertainers and musicians learn this fact the better it will be for all concerned. . . . After all, your jobs here are just preparatory steps to something bigger and better and should be so regarded. . . . Bands that should have gone places but failed for some reason or other are Frank Gibb's Ork—mean the original group. . . . Frank says that petty jealousy

New York Ready For Actors Ride

With enthusiasm running high and final preparations almost complete, all New York is pointing toward the highlight of the summer season—the Second Annual Moonlight Sail Monday night, August 7, of the Negro Actors Guild of America, Inc.

Celebrities galore have already secured their tickets for the affair, either from the offices of the Guild at 1674 Broadway, from the New Jersey Herald News, or any one of the members of the Guild who have them.

Headed by Guild Vice-President Ethel Waters, a throng of theatrical figures will be on hand when the boat, the State of Delaware, casts off at the West 132nd Street Pier. These will include such names as W. C. Handy, Willie Bryant, Edna Thomas, R. Cecil McPherson, Fred Washington, Noble Sissle, Ralph Cooper—not to mention countless more equally outstanding in the entertainment world.

Efforts were being made this week to borrow Sister Harpo, celebrated "holier roller" singer, from the Cotton Club for the evening as an added entertainment attraction for the pleasure-seekers. The Mary Bruce Dancing Kids have already been secured for a number.

Edgar Hayes, whose Blue Rhythm orchestra will supply the music, gives the excursion its theme in "Stardust on the Hudson." With the Hayes group on the vocal, will be Jean De Metz, Brooklyn songbird who will, according to Hayes, soon blaze her name across the musical skies.

Rudy Vallee of Yale, Ozzie Nelson of Rutgers, Kay Kyser of University of North Carolina, Jimmy Lunceford of Fink, Erskine Hines of Alabama State and Fletcher Henderson of Atlanta—why the field is crowded with college men. . . . Which means also that entertainers and musicians will have to be of a higher calibre both in training and character than was necessary in former years. . . . If they want to go to the top in the game. . . . With war clouds gathering over Europe I wonder why some smart performer hasn't taken the cue from Kate Smith and featured patriotic numbers. . . . They always go big when people are in a warlike mood. . . . You're

Governor's Bar & Grill

PATERSON, Aug. 2—The Governors Bar and Grill, located at 182 Governor Street is one of the finest night clubs in this State. The new surface floor is winning the praise of jittersbugs who find it especially suited to the execution of the most intricate Lindy steps.

Pancho Diggs' Band is New Jersey Favorite

Pancho Diggs' band is proving a strong favorite with dance lovers in Central Jersey. Recently Pancho played at the Green Brier in Pine Brook and packed the place to capacity. His services are in demand in many of the dance halls in that section and he is proving just as good a drawing card as the big name bands.

Pancho has been rapidly forging his way to the front in recent years and it seems by the present popularity he is enjoying at the shore that he has just about arrived. His band likewise enjoys the favor of jittersbugs in Newark and other North Jersey communities and it is quite likely that he will be the first local band to withstand the ruinous competition offered by the name bands from New York.

Pancho Diggs' orchestra is definitely in the spotlight and his local supporters would not be surprised to hear of him cracking the "big time" in New York soon.

Old Timers Frolic At Bob Jones'

PINE BROOK, Aug. 2—Sportsmen from all over Jersey trekked their way here Sunday to the annual Old Timers Dinner held at Bob Jones'. It was a gala affair with good fellowship and the Bob Jones' hospitality at its best.

The dinner was one of the finest and brought rounds of compliments from the guests to the most congenial host on the coast. A menu of relish, southern fried chicken, roast beef prime rib, roast Jersey duck, baked Virginia ham, fresh string beans, home style, new corn on shuck, salad, apple pie and information proffered a feast "fit for a King."

Among those seen enjoying the delicious repast were Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Casady, Emma, Rose and Mrs. Bowley, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Harris, Bobby and Carl Brown, Fred Brown, Norman Scher, Robert Herk, John Walker, Almina Howard.

Saturday, past meridian, and a holy man garbed in a long blue robe stands on the corner of Spring and Willow beating a drum and chanting a psalm. In a seemingly vain attempt to drive Satan from his haunts, he has an audience at any rate, some sober, some, listening a bit to the port side, a few interested, a greater number inquisitive. The adepts are cluttered with the late shoppers, C.C. boys and Mel Talsford.

The Duke Rates Some Big Name Swing Bands

In the July issue of Down Beat, Duke Ellington in an article under the caption "Duke Becomes A Critic," the famous band leader has the following to say about some of our leading swing aggregations:

JIMMY LUNCEFORD: "A greatly underrated band. Capable of mighty fine interpretations, obviously the result of sincere thought and of rehearsal to the perfection-point; rehearsal until the arrangements are matured. Much of the music of this band has been overlooked. He has developed a definitely individual style, mood and color, and has never been successfully imitated."

COUNT BASIE: "Basie's outstanding musical quality has been unpretentious and he and his boys have stuck to their guns all the way through to success. Undoubtedly the greatest rhythm section in the business, they are the greatest exponent of that emotional element of bouncing buoyancy, otherwise known as swing."

The other colored band Duke discusses is Chick Webb and his observations are interesting since the article was evidently written before Chick's death. "We don't know whether Chick is lucky or unlucky because of the fact that he has such an outstanding vocalist in Ella Fitzgerald, and because of the fact that he himself is such an outstanding drummer. However, it must be recognized that these two facts do prevent people from realizing the worth of a fine band. Chick himself, besides Ella, stands the spotlight and perhaps the band is a victim of sensationalism," comments the Duke.

HERALD NEWS

In the Groove . . .

By BUTTS BROWN

Whenever one talks of Jersey's greatest colored tennis players to any of the old timers there is one name that never fails to be mentioned—Solomon Word of Elizabeth. "Hap" was one of those "tennis player tennis players" and the boys just liked to see him play whether he was winning or losing.

Joe Francis, coach of the Vikings, is one who can always entertain you with a yarn on Word's tennis exploits. Joe told us a story of Word playing in the Nationals one year in which his opponent had him down by two sets and 40-0 in the final. On the next service Word smashed the ball down the sideline with all his might and the ball splattered all over. He continued to smash with the same recklessness and finally won the match.

As Joe well said, it took iron nerves and courage for a player to hit that game and set point to hard, but Hap never softened up his game no matter what the emergency—and that is what made him one of our truly greats. Despite the fact that he was never a national champion, to those who saw his mastery of strokes, his brilliance of execution and his coolness under fire he will go down in tennis history as one of the best players the race has produced.

HOW ABOUT BORICAN?

Al Curtis, former Extension Worker at Bordentown, takes us to task for a rib we gave Archie Williams for his showing in the Princeton invitation meet. Al points out that neither of those serious boys is and is not a playboy or as well headed as the item implied.

He informs us that Williams only runs in the Princeton meet each year and has practically given up track to pursue work in engineering in his native State. Archie works for the water department in Oakland, California, and has possibilities of landing a permanent job there, after the completion of his course. He prefers this to jumping around the country, running in track meets for expenses.

All right Al, we'll accept your correction in the case of Williams, but what have you to say about playboy Johnnie Borican? There is no doubt that success has made it rather difficult for Johnnie to buy a hat large enough to fit his inflated head. Instead of exhibiting the modesty that is typical of most successful athletes, Johnnie has become egotistical and arrogant that he makes himself almost reprehensible.

Boricane's deportment since his success in the indoor meets this winter has been most disappointing to his friends and admirers. Instead of gaining friends he has lost them. If he continues his escapades, he will ruin the rather dubious distinction of being the most universally despised athlete in the history of American track.

This is unfortunate. Johnnie has all the attributes to become one of track's immortals. He has ability, heart and the intelligence to make him great but unless he changes his way of living he is doomed.

I am writing this about Johnnie, not because of any personal animosity, but because he is a Jersey boy and a product of our colored colleges. I would hate to think that athletes coming from our colored schools and gaining international fame, can not win the laurels with the same modesty, heart and credit as Jesse Owens, Eulace Peacock, Mel Walker, Eddie Tolan and Ralph Metcalfe, who were products of white colleges.

Boricane is a former and the future and attitude track authorities and the public take toward boys coming from our colored schools is largely dependent upon his conduct. To say that he has failed in his mission to date is a mild and gentle statement of a thing that merits only the sternest rebuff.

The Hill has gone soft and mellow, if the crowds attending the games at Douglass-Harrison park can be used as a barometer. Fully 400 saw most of the league games and even more would attend if the place could accommodate them.

Right now the Afro-Club nine is leading the league and manager of the Hi-Spots says his club is sure to "come on" in the second half. He has a nice aggregation with Joe Thomas, p.; Lloyd, catcher; Meyer, owner of the Hi-Spot, first base; Sam Sowell, 2b.; Moe Baker, ss.; Buster La Berth, 3b.; Russell Strothers, cf.; Andrew Jackson, 1b.; Dave Armstrong, short centerfield; Fay Gannaway, 3b. Eddie will probably get into the lineup as soon as his back recovers from a vicious swing he made at a slow ball the other night and—missed.

Another fine aggregation, the All-Stars, hails from up Orange way and has Joe Raymond, 3b.; Eddie Simmons, 2b.; Wany Okey, ss.; Fay Gannaway, 1b.; Scrapy Meekins, p.; Johnnie Brown, cf.; Cokie Jones, cf.; "Speedy" rt and Bobbie Bell, short center.

Rain Falls To Stop Union Picnic Ardor

By ROBERT C. QUEEN, JR.
TRENTON, Aug. 17.—A downpour of rain failed to dampen the ardor of the picnic, which is sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance at Cadwallader Park. Rev. A. S. Grayson, pastor of Union Baptist Church, is President of the Alliance and Rev. John A. White, of Shiloh Baptist, treasurer.

Over four hundred persons braved the inclement weather to remain after a relatively good start. Although the park was full, shelter was to be had under the huge pavilion and the large trees that cover the park. Sunday School from eight surrounding counties gathered at the park on the last Thursday of each July for a day of fun and to enjoy with an abundant supply of fried chicken and potato salad.

Races and games were held in the morning under the direction of the following persons: Hilmar L. Jensen, Secretary of the Community Y. M. C. A.; Gerald Harvin, his assistant; Daisy Adams and Marcelus Jenkins of the City playground department; Lefone Crossland and Leon Trochard of the recreational department of the WPA.

Farmers Meet
The Fifth National Convention of the New Farmers of America will open at the New Jersey Manual Training School in Bordentown next Sunday, August 20, and will continue through August 24. The advanced registration has already reached nearly five hundred; it is expected that the attendance will be six hundred or more.

SUN. SCHOOLS IN TRACK MEET

By HORACE A. SPAIN
EAST ORANGE, Aug. 17.—The Eighth Annual Sunday School track and field meet was held at Ashland Stadium Saturday afternoon before a large crowd of track enthusiasts. The events were marred by rain that made it necessary to postpone some of the races but Union Baptist, St. Paul, Epiphany and Calvary qualified.

Vikings-N. End Tilt At "Natural"

Local tennis fans are all agog over the forthcoming meeting between the undefeated North End Tennis Club of Elizabeth and the strong Vikings club who clash on the Douglass-Harrison courts, Sunday afternoon. Neither club has been seriously threatened this year and their meeting Sunday is one of the best "naturals" Newark tennis fans have ever seen.

John Chandler, State champion, will carry the brunt of the battle for the Union County team and will probably be opposed by Lark in the singles. Whether Lark will be able to spring a surprise and defeat his outstanding opponent is the question. Coach Joseph-Francis of the Vikings has ever confidence in his protégé to win.

Philly Stars Defeat Grays

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—The Philadelphia Stars won a bitterly contested game from the champion Homestead Grays, having won in a brilliant play game by a score of 6-4. Miller and McHenry limited the hard hitting Grays to 9 hits which included a home run in the seventh inning by Whaley.

Benson, Wilson, Patterson and Williams were the batting stars for the local nine and pounded the offerings of Brown and Walter to all corners of the field. The second game of the scheduled double-header was called on account of rain.

Columnist Praises Joe

Former Governor Harold G. Hoffman wrote some interesting words on Joe Louis last week in his column entitled "Of All Things" that appears daily in the Newark Ledger. The article in part reads:

"Joe Louis is a good man with his hands. He can dish it out—and he can take it. The share of glory and prosperity he has won from the world in the face of handicaps is his by merit and not by favor. He is always willing to defend his title—without means putting that title at risk by giving all comers a chance to take it away from him, if any of them is good enough to do it."

"Maybe it is pride in his strength and skill and heart that makes Joe Louis willing to let everything he has on the great table of fate so often. Well, skill and strength and heart are causes for legitimate pride. So is his willingness to give the other fellow a chance—if it is 15 a chance to step into the ring with Joe Louis."

"Once in the ring he fights—fights as few men have fought in pugilistic history. He beats his opponents down with merciless blows, coming over harder and faster until the human flesh and bone can't take any more of them and once more the referee takes Joe's hand in token of victory."

How long will he last? I don't know. That is up to the wearing rub of the world—that it beats him. Too much time in his muscles and nerves less time those of a younger challenger."

"I will be a great fall when it comes, but I am not going to think about that now. I don't want to see him licked until an undoubtedly better man comes along. He is too good a man to go down."

NORTH END CLUB DEFEATS ASBURY PARK COURT TEAM

ASBURY PARK, Aug. 2.—The North End Tennis Club of Elizabeth continued their successful conquest of New Jersey tennis clubs by adding the Asbury Park club to their list of victims here Sunday by a score of 7 matches to 0. The North End will meet the strong Vikings Tennis Club of Newark on the Douglass Harrison Park courts Sunday in what should prove a sensational match as both clubs are undefeated.

The North End club has been giving free instructions every Friday to beginners with John Chandler, Mrs. Martha Davis and Herman Morrow instructing. These lessons will be discontinued after two more instructing periods. Here are the scores of Sunday's matches:

GRAYS-YANKS, CUBANS-ELITES AT YANK STADIUM

As the attraction at the Yankee Stadium on Sunday, August 13, the Negro National League will feature the present second half leaders, the Baltimore Elite Giants vs. the Cuban Stars in the first game and the New York Black Yankees clashing with the Champion Homestead Grays in the second.

The Baltimore Elites, strengthened by the addition of "Cool Breeze" Butts, "Bullet" Dixon and "Slim" Evans of the Atlanta Crackers, are setting a dizzy pace as the second half leaders and constitute a definite threat to the Grays-supremacy. The Cubans, now at full strength for the first time this season, are confident of turning the tables on the Elites and knocking them out of their command position.

The Grays by their overwhelming victory over the Philadelphia Stars, are favored over the Yanks in the second game of the sudden return to form of "Elmer" McDuffie and "Neck" Stanley should cause the Smoky City sluggers many anxious moments before the final out is recorded.

Three Jacks Support Trophy doubleheaders have already drawn a gross attendance of over 40,000 fans, so that this All Star attraction of Sunday, August 13 should lure another banner crowd to the Yankee Stadium.

Henry Trains For Lou Ambers

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Henry Armstrong, world lightweight and welterweight champion, will start training next week for his lightweight title bout with Lou Ambers. The fight will be held at Yankee Stadium on August 22. Armstrong's hand which was injured in his fight with Ernie Rodrick in England recently has healed completely and was pronounced sound by his physician last week.

Henry won the title from Ambers in a bout that was one of the most gruelling seen in New York ring in many years. Armstrong is expected to encounter Ambers in the toughest opposition Ambers has met since his sensational rise to field fame.

EAGLE PLAYERS ON EAST TEAM

Three members of the Newark Eagles are likely to see action in the East-West game to be played at Comiskey Park, Chicago, Sunday. They are Willie Wells, shortstop, Mule Suttles, first base and Leon Day, Pitcher. Wells and Suttles have participated in every East-West game that has been played and "Mule" has emerged the hero on more than one occasion with his terrific slugging.

This will mark the first time that Leon Day has seen action in one of these contests and it is quite likely that he will gain the starting assignment. Day is probably the best hurler in the league today, rating along with Satchel Paige and other greats, and merits this recognition.

The East will be represented by the strongest team to ever appear in this game. All of the stars slated to appear in the game will be in the lineup including John Gibson, Buck Leonard, Bill Wright, Wells, Suttles and all the other greats.

Because of this stellar lineup the East will enter the game a strong favorite to revenge last year's defeat.

VIKINGS DEFEAT CUE BEE CLUB

RAHWAY.—The strong Vikings Tennis Club of Newark defeated the Cue Bee Tennis Club here on the latter's illuminated courts Wednesday night. The Newark racket wielders made a clean sweep of the matches by winning all five. The final results were as follows:

Men's Singles
G. Moorehead, V, d L. Carter, CB, 6-0; 6-0.

Men's Doubles
J. Collins and G. Wormley, V, d A. Borden and G. Smith, CB, 6-2; 6-1.

A. Tillery and W. Foster, V, d L. Connor and J. Sabocchia, CB, 6-1; 6-1.

EAGLES-GRAYS HERE ON THURS.

Local fans are pointing to two events in the Newark Eagles schedule, one at the beginning—next Thursday night—and the other, the mammoth program as a finale.

The Eagles return to their home grounds Thursday, August 10, for a home stay of six events beginning with the Homestead Grays, last season's league champions and winners of the first final schedule this year. The game will be played at Ruppert Stadium and it will be Ladies Night. The game will start at 9 p. m.

The closing program of the season's schedule will be held September 3 in which four Negro National League participants in a double-header. In the first game the Philadelphia Stars will meet the Baltimore Elite Giants and in the second and feature game, the Eagles will face the Grays.

In between these two events of the home stay, the Eagles are scheduled to play a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Stars here Sunday afternoon at 2-17 p. m. on August 18.

The remainder of the program includes the Cuban Stars at August 17 and 20, the New York Black Yankees on August 24 and the Baltimore Elite Giants on August 31.

Boricane - Peacock Seen As Olympic Prospects

New Jersey stands a chance of placing more Negroes on the Olympic team in 1940 than ever before in the history of the State. The present array of colored stars should be able to more than hold their own against the best competition available. An indication of the possible membership of the U. S. Olympic team will be gleaned when the indoor track season gets underway next winter.

Outstanding among the colored prospects at this time are Herbert Thompson and Eulace Peacock in the dashes, Borican in the half mile and 440 yd. hurdles, Glider Farrow and St. Paxton in the hurdles and Archie Harris in the discus.

Harris is without doubt the best discus thrower in the land but finds great difficulty in keeping in the circles after he has thrown the sphere. If he overcomes this fault he will be a strong candidate to win the event in the Olympics.

Eulace Peacock is another prospect who must be considered a great possibility to win. Carl Anderson, coach of the Newark Athletic Club's track team, feels that Peacock's best chance is in the broad jump. Peacock has done over 26 feet in this event but specializes in the dashes. He has been handicapped by a leg injury that ruined his chances in the 1936 games.

Farrow and Paxton are both fine hurdlers who may reach their peak next year and if so will be hard men to beat. George Foster of Marquette University is another hurdle prospect who looms as a dark horse.

Boricane is hot in the hurdles but at this time he is an unknown quantity. He reached the peak last Winter but has shown surprise reversal of form in his outdoor races. Whether he can regain his winning form will not be known until the trials. Many feel that Johnnie is a sure winner in the 440 yard hurdles and that he should forego the middle distance races for this event in which he excels.

Despite all of the speculation it is almost a sure bet that one of Jersey's colored hopefuls will win a place on the team.
